Updates from the Trust

Hollie's 26th Birthday

On the 24th of July we remembered Hollie on her 26th Birthday. Hollie's birthday is always a bitter sweet occasion. We remember the happy and special moments we had with her and celebrate the amazing 20 years we got to share with Hollie. Click below to see how one of the NCS Groups paid tribute.

Text 2 Donate

We have now launched a text 2 donate campaign where you can simply text HGT and your donation to 70085. For example, to donate £5 you'd text HGT5 to 70085, to donate £10 it'd be HGT10 and so on.

CTFC Open Day

As Cheltenham Town FC's Charity of the year we were invited to their open day on Sunday 28th of July. It was a fantastic day and it was great to meet the players, management and supporters. Nick also put his Cheltenham Town shirt on after 30 years, in a game against the supporters team. The reaction to the charity was amazing - thank you.

Upcoming Events

Golf Day 2019

The next upcoming event for the Hollie Gazzard Trust is our annual Golf Day which will be held at Brickhampton Golf Complex on Thursday 12th September from 11am.

The cost has been held at last year's price of £50 per person or you can enter a team of 4 for £200.

This event is held every year, and we look to raise £5,000 to continue to run our safeguarding personal safety App, Hollie Guard.

News

Domestic abuse report exposes hidden side of rural life

A "deeply hidden and disturbing side to rural life" has been laid bare by an 18-month inquiry into domestic abuse in the English countryside. Domestic abuse victims there suffer for longer, are less likely to report abuse and struggle to get support, it said.

Russians using bloody make-up to tackle domestic abuse

Thousands of Russians have called on the government to pass a domestic violence bill and warned women are dying due to a dearth of protections. Russia is one of the only major countries in the world not to have dedicated laws for domestic violence, despite official studies suggesting at least one in five women have experienced physical violence.

Increased jobcentre support for women experiencing domestic abuse

DWP staff across the UK are currently undergoing specialist training from expert organisation Women's Aid. The newly assigned points of contact will be trained to identify and support the needs of anyone experiencing domestic abuse, and will work closely with local services to share knowledge and signpost women to additional, external support.
