

Welcome to the December edition of the Hollie Gazzette!
 This edition covers some of the latest news articles regarding the development in the domestic abuse and stalking arena as well as news from the Trust and upcoming events.

Klara Sudbury, former Mayor of Cheltenham, has joined the Hollie Gazzard Trust!

We are delighted to announce that Klara Sudbury, former Mayor of Cheltenham, has joined the Hollie Gazzard Trust as our Fundraising Manager!
 In her new role Klara, still a Cheltenham Borough councillor and Gloucestershire County councillor, has been speaking to businesses and individuals from across the region about the work the trust does. One of the first things she has done is to register the trust as a beneficiary of the Cheltenham Lottery. She is also organising the charity's annual dinner on 28th February, which is always the highlight of its fundraising year.

Updates from the Trust

Barnwood Bowling Club raised a fantastic £1,500 for Hollie Gazzard Trust

We were delighted to receive the outstanding support shown from Barnwood Bowling Club this month. Nick Gazzard was invited to a cheque presentation of £1,500 following a year-long fundraising campaign by the club. The Captain, Jon Horril, chose the Hollie Gazzard Trust as it was a charity close to his heart, as his daughter had worked with and known Hollie.

Nick Gazzard teams up with Cecil for her new music video

Earlier this year, Nick Gazzard was approached by singer/song writer Cecil to be involved in her new music video, Ceasefire. Cecil teamed up with the new networking platform Project Ceasefire, setup with the primary goal of keeping families and those affected by knife crime, gun crime and youth violence, connected to one another. You can read the whole article on our website.

Staffordshire Police launch a new 'Lets Talk Stalking' campaign.

The 'Let's Talk Stalking' campaign, which began on Monday November 18th, runs for four weeks and aims to increase public knowledge of stalking. The campaign features a video which focuses on the FOUR warning signs that someone's behaviour amounts to stalking. There is also a separate video demonstrating how the Hollie Guard app can help victims stay safe.

News

New Campaign Launches Aimed at Perpetrators of Domestic Abuse

West Yorkshire Police is launching a new campaign aimed at perpetrators of domestic abuse to coincide with the international 16 Days of Action Against Domestic Violence.

The 'It's in your hands' campaign is targeted at both men and women who are concerned about their behaviour, whether this is physical violence or controlling tendencies. The message is that there is still time to change and support available to do it.

Global protests demand end to violence against women

Demonstrators gathered over the weekend to mark the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women which falls on 25 November every year. The day, which has been observed for 40 years and part of the UN calendar for 20, aims to shine a spotlight on the prevalence of rape and domestic abuse and other forms of violence which women endure.
